FOLKS BACK HOME WILL HEAR OF CONGRESS

FIGHT ON FARM RELIEF IS TO BE RECOUNTED

FARMER SENATORS TO TAKE THE ISSUE BEFORE VOTERS THIS FALL

AIM TO REVIVE HAUGEN EQUAL- IZATION FEE BILL AT WIN- TER SESSION

By JULIAN SYNDER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, June 30.—Members of the senate farm bloc will "carry on" with their fight for farm relief back home now that congress has failed to give them the legislation they desired.

Farmer senators made known today that they will take the issue before the voters this fall and will revive the Haugen equalization fee bill at the December session.

Three weeks' wrangling in the senate over farm relief came to an end with a tumultuous 10 hour session yesterday, featured by the overwhelming defeat of the Coolidge endorsed Fess farm loan bill and all other farm bills except a co-operative measure which was passed without a roll call just before adjournment at 9:30 P. M.

The co-operative bill, which sets up a division in the department of agriculture "to promote co-operative marketing," has passed the house. It represents the sum total of what the farmer has received from the present session. Adjournment of congress is now set for Saturday night.

The overwhelming defeat of the Fess bill, which had been repudiated by farmer senators as a "worthless makeshift," was brought about when republican senators in an amazing stampede deserted the Coolidge standard. The rout was unexpected as advance polls had showed a close vote. The measure went down to defeat, 54 to 26.

The bill proposed to appropriate $100,000,000 for loans to co-operative farm organizations.

Following defeat of the Fess bill, the senate remained in continuous session until all other farm bills had been disposed of. After the co-operative bill was passed the Dill radio commission measure was made the business for today and the senate adjourned.

A fierce fight on the Fess farm loan bill began in the senate as soon as it was offered by Senator Fess, republican, Ohio. The farm bloc, led by Senator Johnson, republican, California, and George W. Norris, republican, Nebraska, led the attack. Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, openly charged Secretaries Hoover and Jardine had joined in a conspiracy to support the measure as part of a scheme to benefit Chicago interests that desired to dispose of a lot of "worthless grain elevators." Wheeler said the Rosenbaum and Armour interests that backed the old Grain Marketing Company would be enabled by the bill to sell the elevators to "co-operatives" which would borrow from the $100,000,000 fund.

Following defeat of the Fess bill, the senate defeated an amendment of Senator Howell, republican, Nebraska, to apply the Haugen equalization fee to wheat. The vote was 22 to 55.

The senate then defeated the Robinson farmers export corporation plan, 51 to 26.

Senator Robinson, democrat, Arkansas, withdrew his tariff reduction amendment after Senators Curtis, republican, Kansas, succeeded in changing it into a "protectionist" measure. Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, also tacked on an amendment making the use of "political influences" upon members of the tariff commission a felony punishable by fine of $10,000 or one year in prison.

Consideration of this amendment caused a tumult. Senator Norris was defeated on a motion for a recess by a vote of 16 to 60.

Senator Reed precipitated another outburst by moving to take up the rivers and harbors bill but withdrew his motion later.

The senate then successively voted down three bills to lower freight rates. The bills were offered by Senators Mayfield, democrat, Texas, Harris, democrat, Georgia, and Howell, republican, Nebraska.

Finally Senator Neely asked that debate be limited to one minute and this caused an immediate affirmative vote on the co-operative bill, the last farm bill on the list.

DEATH OF CIRCUS FREAK CAUSED END OF MANAGER

New York, June 30.—(UP)—Broken in spirit at the death of his companion for 35 years, the ape like circus freak, Zip, "Captain" O. K. White, circus man and Zip's manager, died at the Coney Island hospital last night.

Weakness of his 76 years and heart disease caused his death, doctors said. But they added that death was hastened by White's sorrow over the loss of Zip who died in April. White collapsed at the freak's grave and never recovered.

QUAKES ARE NUMEROUS, ALL WORLD AFFECTED

SCIENCE CAN GIVE NO EXPLANA- TION FOR UNUSUAL NUMBER

CALIFORNIA TREMORS BELIEVED NOT CONNECTED WITH MEDITERRANEAN

Washington, June 30.—(UP)—Science can give no explanation for the unusual number of earthquakes felt recently in various parts of the world, according to Father Francis A. Tondorf, head of the seismological department of Georgetown University.

Seven quakes have been recorded in the last 60 hours, three of them yesterday within 12 hours, Father Tondorf said.

"No reason can be given to show why so many earthquakes have occurred just at this time," he declared. "In fact they are usually of less frequent occurrence in the summer months than at any other period."

Science establishes no connection between the quakes in California and those in the Mediterranean. Only coincidence can explain their appearance so close together in time, Father Tondorf said.

EXTENT OF SHOCKS IS REVIEWED

A series of earthquakes which began Saturday night with several comparatively gentle shocks in the central and eastern Mediterranean basin, has extended to the equatorial Far East and to California, central Europe and south Africa with large loss of life and property reported from the Dutch East Indies.

Saturday's quakes disturbed islands in the eastern Mediterranean with the loss of one or two lives; shook down several houses in the Italian heel and did slight damage in Egypt.

A five-second shock was reported in Salisbury, Rhodesia, south Africa, yesterday. A severe shock was reported in Cologne Monday night, extending to the upper reaches of the Rhine.

Raffaele Bendani, the Italian seismologist, Tuesday reported a violent earthquake at a distance of about 6,500 miles. The disturbance lasted two hours.

SWEDISH ROYALTY IS NOW ENROUTE FOR THE WEST

BOARD A NORTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN AT MINNE- APOLIS

CROWN PRINCE AND PRINCESS TO VISIT YELLOWSTONE PARK

Minneapolis, June 30.—(UP)—Crown Prince Gustav Adolf and Princess Louise of Sweden breathed easier today when they stepped aboard a Northern Pacific train for the west.

Their trip to the United States was part of the tour of the world as a "vacation." But their royal highnesses have been kept so busy since arriving at New York that they have had no rest. Their vacation really is just beginning.

With brief stops at many cities along the route, the crown prince and princess are going to Yellowstone National Park. They will arrive at the Gardiner, Mont., entrance Friday evening.

Six days will be spent amid the beauties of the park and then they will go to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

Greeted by what Prince Adolf said was the "largest crowd I have ever seen," their royal highnesses were the guests at a public reception in the University of Minnesota stadium late Tuesday, attended by 35,000 persons.

Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg, Governor Theodore Christanson and President Lotus D. Coffman of the university, delivered addresses to which Crown Prince Adolf responded.

After two months in the west and far west, their royal highnesses will go to Hawaii, China, Japan and other countries of the Orient.

SHORT STOP AT LITTLE FALLS

Little Falls, Minn., June 30.—Every farmer in Morrison county, who could be reached by telephone, was notified today that the special train carrying the crown prince and princess of Sweden would stop here for a short program.

Business was suspended for an hour while the entire town turned out for an informal reception to the royal visitors.

The prince was presented with a paperweight made of Little Falls black granite while the princess was given a bouquet of flowers. The royal pair thanked the citizens for the demonstration and the train continued its westward journey.

11 MERCHANTS, ALLEGED RIOTERS ARE BOUND OVER

CHARGED WITH ALLEGED PAR- TICIPATION IN ANTI-KLAN DEMONSTRATION

REV. FATHER PETER RICE, WHO MADE A SPEECH, WAS RELEASED

Hudson, Wis., June 30.—(UP)—Eleven merchants and other citizens have been bound over to St. Croix county court under the Wisconsin riot law for alleged participation in an anti Ku Klux Klan demonstration.

Rev. Father Peter Rice, head of the Hudson Catholic parish, who made a speech from the platform at a meeting June 14, which ended in a riot and the burning of the tent, in which the gathering was held, was released by Judge Otto Arnuist and freed from blame.

In announcing his decision, Judge Arnuist said it was "regrettable that any such organization should have come here" and commented that the Klan "tends to make bitterness, strife and violence."

Among those bound over were William Burton, Jr., a lieutenant in the Wisconsin national guard; Gregg Busby of River Falls, a contractor, and Henry Klein, real estate dealer.

The 11 were released on a blanket bond of $1,000 pending trial during the September term of court.

DUTCH EAST INDIES VISITED BY EARTHQUAKE

Amsterdam, Holland, June 30.—(UP)—Dispatches from Sumatra today reported large loss of life in a new earthquake in the Dutch East Indies. Latest estimates put the death toll at more than 70 including 50 Europeans.

So far as is known all the deaths occurred on Padang and Pandjang islands of the Dutch East Indies group.

ISLAND OF PANDANG LOSES MANY BUILDINGS

The Hague, June 30.—(UP)—Virtually all buildings on the island of Pandang were razed by yesterday's earthquake, dispatches received here today stated.

At first it was reported that 130 persons had been killed. Several stores and dwellings collapsed at Fort De Kock and the damage at Solok is described as serious.

SANTA BARBARA BADLY SHAKEN

Santa Barbara, Calif., June 30.—(UP)—Broken windows, several cracked chimneys and considerable damage to three large buildings constituted the main damage done by an earthquake which shook Santa Barbara yesterday afternoon. The shake came on the anniversary of the 1925 trembler, which shook down the buildings and did heavy damage.

KILLED ONE AND TERRORIZED MANY RANCHERS

GEORGE STALEY NOW UNDER ARREST IN HAAKON COUN- TY JAIL, S. D.

SHOT AND KILLED T. C. WASSON, 70, ON THE LATTER'S FARM

Phillip, S. D., June 30.—(UP)—After killing one man and terrorizing ranchers near Moenville, George Staley was under arrest in Haakon county jail here today.

Staley shot and killed T. C. Wason, 70, on the latter's farm late Tuesday and then started on a shooting tour of other ranches, but was disarmed by Will Hayes. Hayes said Staley threatened to kill him.

Staley on horseback approached Wason while the latter was watering his horses at a creek and commented that "You can't get your team up that bank." Wason's off-hand reply that he guessed he could apparently angered Staley, who drew his gun and fired.

Staley was accompanied by his young son. They went finally to the Hayes ranch. Hayes disarmed Staley while the son ran for help.

Authorities believe Staley was temporarily insane through intoxication.

PROMOTER NOT GUILTY OF LARCENY SAYS THE JURY

Elk River, Minn., June 30.—(UP)—A jury in Sherburne county district court found Sam Strand of Minneapolis, a promoter, not guilty of larceny late Tuesday.

Strand, former president of the Farmers' State Bank of Big Lake, was accused of having sold a mortgage to the Hanover State Bank for $1,200 and crediting only $700 to the bank, keeping $500 for himself.

Carl H. Melberg, now in the hospital at Minneapolis, is under indictment in connection with the failure of the Big Lake bank and will go to trial in November.

FLOOD WATERS THREATEN DYKES OF THE DANUBE

Belgrade, June 30.—(UP)—Flood waters today threatened to burst through the Danube dykes here. The river is swollen by many days of rain.

Approximately 12,000 men and 5,000 horses are working day and night to strengthen the dykes.

Belgrade is the capital of Jugo Slavia, on the right bank of the Danube at the confluence of the Save.

SABBATINI IS FOUND GUILTY ON FRAUD CHARGE

JURY SAYS HE FRAUDULENTLY ALLOWED CLAIM AGAINST STUNTZ TOWNSHIP

CLAIMED HE HAD TOWNSHIP PAY FOR LUMBER USED IN HIS OWN HOME

Hibbing, Minn., June 30.—(UP)—A prison term of two to five years or a fine was faced today by Edward Sabbatini, supervisor of Stuntz township, found guilty by a jury of fraudulently allowing a claim against the township.

The jury deliberated less than three hours, returning its verdict shortly before 3 P. M. Tuesday. Judge Edward Freeman granted Sabbatini a stay of execution until July 13. John M. Cannon, attorney for the supervisor, announced an appeal would be taken to the Minnesota supreme court.

Sabbatini was tried on the specific charge that he connived with other township officials in having the township pay for lumber and other materials that were used in building his new home.

Witnesses also testified that workers engaged in the construction of the home received their compensation out of the township treasury. Sabbatini's conviction is the first to follow the investigation into the range township's affairs by Garfield W. Brown, state public examiner, who criticized the handling of finances in a report made public several weeks ago.

Brown charged officials with wholesale squandering of township money and declared illegal expenditures had been and were being made.

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGES DISMISSED

Carson, N. D., June 30.—(UP)—Embezzlement charges against John C. Grimm, F. C. Proehl and C. C. Griffiths, who were indicted following the failure of the New England State Bank, have been dismissed by Judge Thomas Pugh in Grant county district court here.

Dispatches reported last week that the charges against the men were held in abeyance pending restitution of the money, alleged to have been embezzled. Such was the status of the case at the time insofar as records show.

However, Judge Pugh has given orders to the clerk of the court to enter dismissals of the cases on the records and they have been absolved of connection with the case.

PARLIAMENT BY MAJORITY OF 10

CENSURED GEORGE H. BOIVIN, FORMER MINISTER OF CUSTOMS

Ottawa, Ont., June 30.—(UP)—Parliament by a majority of 10 has censured George H. Boivin, minister of customs in the late Mackenzie King liberal government, and the way was open today for Premier Arthur Meighen to conclude parliamentary business, prologue parliament and permanently form his conservative cabinet. The vote of censure against Boivin censured the King government as well and the parliamentary situation was accepted here as justifying Lord Byng, the governor general, in refusing King's request for dissolution and a general election.

Shell Explosion During Military Maneuvers in Poland

Berlin, June 30.—(UP)—A shell explosion during military maneuvers at Kovel, Poland, resulted in large loss of life today, according to a dispatch from Warsaw. Forty soldiers are reported to have been killed and 58 wounded.

Kovel is near Warsaw. Kovel, Poland, June 30.—(UP)—A shell exploded during military maneuvers here today killing 40 soldiers and wounding 38 seriously. Twenty soldiers, including several officers, were slightly injured.

OFFERS RESOLUTION TO REPEAL THE 18TH AMENDMENT

Washington, June 30.—(UP)—A resolution to repeal the 18th amendment, drafted so as to bring about a national referendum on prohibition, was offered in the senate today by Senator Edward I. Edwards, democrat, New Jersey, wet leader.

Edwards said his resolution "effectively answers the contention of the dries, including Senator Borah of Idaho and Walsh, democrat, Montana, that the constitution does not sanction a referendum."

NORTH DAKOTA SPECIAL AND PRIMARY VOTING

ISSUES OF CAMPAIGN CLOUDED BY LAST MINUTE DE- VELOPMENTS

CHARGE MADE THAT A SLUSH FUND HAS BEEN BROUGHT INTO STATE

Fargo, N. D., June 30.—(UP)—With the issues of the campaign complicated by last minute developments, North Dakota is voting in special and primary elections today.

One complication was the charge that a "slush fund" has been brought into the state "through administration channels" to defeat United States Senator Gerald P. Nye, farm bloc member, who is a candidate for re-election.

The charge was made in a letter from D. H. McArthur, Nye's secretary, to the senate primary investigating committee. Nye is opposed in the special election for the short term of senator and the republican primary for the long term by L. B. Hanna, Coolidge republican.

The question of farm relief has played a part in the senatorial campaign although as an issue it has not been fought over as bitterly as in Iowa and elsewhere. Nye's colleagues in the senatorial bloc have urged North Dakota voters to return him to Washington in order that he may lend his support in the next congress to the middle west's agricultural program.

In a lesser degree prohibition enters into the republican long term primary, through the candidacy of C. P. Stone, a wet, whose vote will be weighed carefully in view of wet threats into the neighboring state of Minnesota.

The fourth candidate for the long term nomination is Herman N. Midtbo. Neither Stone nor Midtbo are entered in the short term special election, Nye and Hanna being the only two candidates.

The four candidates for the republican nomination for governor are Governor W. G. Sorlie, regular Nonpartisan League endorsee; James Hanley, independent; James A. McGovern, self styled "real" Nonpartisan Leaguer, and A. C. Townley, organizer and former chief of the Nonpartisan League.

Townley was entered in the race at the last minute as a "sticker candidate" in a letter signed by "old time Nonpartisans" urging the defeat of Sorlie, who, the letter said, did not have the interests of the league at heart.

If the appeal for Townley evokes any response, Hanley followers believe that the Nonpartisan League vote will be hopelessly split among Townley, Sorlie and McGovern. But the real issue is the continuance of the state industrial program of the Nonpartisan League.

Congressional, state and county nominations also are being made today by the republican, democratic and farmer-labor parties.

"POLLYANNA" PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE HERE

THE BOYD DRAMATIC COMPANY SCORED VERITABLE TRIUMPH

THOS. B. MCGREGOR TO LECTURE ON "YOU AND THE LAW"

Tears rolled down the cheeks of many people at the Park Theatre last night and they were not ashamed of them either, but almost as quickly as the tears appeared they were whisked away by good, hearty, happy laughter.

It takes good acting to sway an audience to tears and especially at a Chautauqua where everybody is all primed up for a laughing good time, but that's just what the Boyd Dramatic Company did last night in putting over "Pollyanna."

The company didn't just put it over, they brought the house down with applause and when the six professional actors of the company bid their last adieu for this season at least, the audience was reluctant at their leaving.

"Pollyanna" was even greater than the opening performance, "Daddy Long Legs." It teemed with funny situations, interspersed with sadness, especially when "Pollyanna," who inaugurated the "glad game" to perfection, was injured by one of "Henry's" products.

Just as "Pollyanna" taught the glad game to her fellow actors, so she brought gladness into the hearts of her audience. Even "King Grouch," played by Mr. Boyd, who had been grouchy for 20 years because of what he believed, fickleness on the part of his loved one, came under "Pollyanna's" spell and became just one of the good-natured characters in the play.

It was a well played performance, a drama comedy of the highest talent.

The Boyd Dramatic Company left today to continue their Chautauqua performances elsewhere. They are booked at performances almost daily until September.

This afternoon the Mason Jubilee Singers made their initial appearance at the Park Theatre to a full house and another packed assemblage is expected tonight to hear their concert.

Thomas B. McGregor, who carries the title of Honorable before his name, hails from the south, a true Southern gentleman and orator, who will deliver a lecture at 7:30 o'clock tonight on "You and the Law." He is acclaimed as a forceful dramatic lecturer and his natural wit is sure to please.

Tomorrow's program follows:
Afternoon
3 P. M. Full concert—The Tooley Opera Company. Seven successful musicians in fifteenth century costumes.

Evening
7:45 P. M.—"The Chimes of Normandy." Full opera in beautiful costumes, delightful comedy—The Tooley Opera Company.

NEW TEA SHOP

Miss Lulu Loftus of Minneapolis Opens "Outlook Tea Shop" at Bay Lake Saturday

Miss Lulu Loftus has opened a new tea shop in the Bay Lake district, naming it the "Outlook Shop." For many years Miss Loftus was private secretary to Mr. Murphy of the Minneapolis Tribune.

She has a fine establishment provided with modern conveniences and plans to serve private dinner parties, birthday parties and other functions, as well as a discriminating public. Miss Loftus' tea shop is very attractive and has a "homey" atmosphere.

BRAINERD MEN SEE CROWN PRINCE

Eight Join with Swedish Singers in Welcoming Royal
Visitors

RELATE EXPERIENCES

Crown Prince Adolphus and Princess Louise Appeared Very Happy

In the presence of the future king and queen of Sweden, Crown Prince Gustavus Adolphus and Crown Princess Louise, eight Brainerd citizens of Swedish descent, prominent for their vocal talents, stood together in the big University of Minnesota stadium in front of the 35,000 people in the throng in Minneapolis yesterday and sang as they have never sung before.

The eight Brainerd citizens upon whom this honor was conferred were the following who were invited to Minneapolis to join with the Swedish Singers of America in their praise of the royal visitors in song: Erick Olson, J. A. Linn, Christ Jernberg, Gust Hanson, T. Laterval, Gust Wahlstrom, A. Westerlund, E. O. Anderson.

Today these citizens returned to Brainerd and related their experiences of the warm reception given to the young royal couple in the Twin Cities.

That true love really exists and runs smooth even in the lives of royalty was declared today by E. O. Anderson, who stated that the Crown Prince Adolphus and Princess Louise appeared very happy with each other.

The Crown Prince and Crown Princess or Kron Prinsen og Kron Prinsessan as they would write it in Swedish received their greatest welcome in America in Minnesota.

While the royal couple did not pass through Brainerd, their train passed through Little Falls, and Brainerd feels they have the right to welcome them in spirit even if they cannot welcome them with any demonstration.

In Swedish, Brainerd would welcome them in the following words: "Brainerd Valkomnar Sveriges Blivande Konung Och Drottning," which in English means "Brainerd Welcomes Sweden's To Be King and Queen."

Little Falls was all a-flurry today over the arrival of Sweden's future rulers. Thousands of citizens, farmers from the district, visitors, gathered at the Northern Pacific station to officially welcome them as they passed through Little Falls at 1:30 o'clock. The band was out and banners and United States and Swedish flags and bunting decorated the station in gorgeous array.

Although the train stopped for but five minutes, the prince made a short address and exchanged conversation with the leading officials at Little Falls. A number of people from Brainerd motored down to attend the reception.

Frank Bell, Sr., former Brainerd resident and an old retired engineer of the Northern Pacific railway, died Wednesday afternoon at St. Paul. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon, July 1, at 2:30 o'clock from 288 West Fifth street, St. Paul.

Mr. Bell was a Mason and held membership in Ascalon Commandery of Brainerd. Over 80 years of age, he was the oldest member in point of continued membership, in the Commandery.

At St. Paul, Summit Lodge of Masons will conduct the services.

Pretty Chiffon Capes for Summer Evenings

Some of the pretty little chiffon capes to be worn for summer evenings and matching the frock or contrasting with it are made of pink or green and worn with the gown in one of these colors trimmed with the other.

A pretty way to make one of these capes is to smock the fullness into the neck and scallop and bind the lower edge. The cape may be lined or unlined. But when it is lined the opportunity is offered to combine these pale shades. The smocking can be done in a different color from the cape material. A band of fur around the neck makes it warm enough for a spring day. If one chooses, a long, straight scarf may finish the neck. It should be doubled and it can tie once or twice around the neck, ending in a bow with short or long ends.

These capes may be any length one prefers. If they are intended to be used just as an effective collar they may be quite short. But many women will like them for a summer wrap and an economical idea would be to have an afternoon frock of one shade and an evening gown of the other so that the cape might be worn with either.

Shades in Hosiery to Match Spring Frocks

With the coming of spring and the vogue of matching hose with the frock there comes the question of color. The advent of navy blue, observes a fashion authority, has brought in a great deal of gray hosiery. The rose beige remains with us, so does the popular gunmetal shade, and in fashionable gatherings in Paris and New York the reliable black chiffon hose is appearing frequently. The effort of stylists to bring it back, has been going on for the past season.

The fastidious woman may as well take a hint from the stage. Have you noticed how many of the actresses wear service weight silk hose instead of chiffon? The reason is, of course, an obvious one. In matching the color to the costume the heavier-weight hose holds a more uniform color than any other. This hint may well be used by the woman who would match perfectly her hose and frock.

The "standard beige," a tone from which the rosy fringe is banished, and gray-green gunmetal, are very popular.

Little Visits Around the Rural Section

Written especially for the Dispatch
by W. H. Triplett, travelling editor for this paper and The Farmer of St.
Paul.

The sunshine of the last two or three days has benefited crops so much, especially the corn that it seems one can almost see things grow. Small grains are coming along fine. While going across the field this morning with E. C. Lutes, I could see no reason why farmers should be discouraged. I have traveled lots of country during my visits, and can say that crops as a whole are all improving, over what they were a few weeks ago. The hay crop is somewhat short but I have noticed, it has been the old fields that are the shortest, and they without a doubt would have been poor regardless of the dry season. Mr. Lutes formerly lived in Colorado, coming to Minnesota six years ago. He worked in the shops for three years, and during the strike, he moved out on the farm where he had nothing but brush land. He now has practically all of it cleared. Last year his oats went 50 bushel to the acre, and his buckwheat 30 bushel per acre. Eight acres of alfalfa were seeded, but due to the dry spring was somewhat thin. He plans on building a new barn 34x50, which will enable him to keep more livestock and thus increase his income. He spent several months doing "squad right" with the 35th Infantry, thus learning how to accomplish much in the least possible time.

A Jensen was busy cultivating corn which is one job one must do. He came from North Dakota where they often farm three or four sections, two and a half years ago. He is now farming 160 acres which requires as much or more work here than two or three sections does in North Dakota. The clock struck 12 as we were talking and the writer was invited to a dinner such as we find only on the good old farm, and it was certainly enjoyed. His daughter, Hester, was busy making preparations for the 4th of July celebration.

The Iten Brothers, Raymond and Bert, have one of the best improved farms that we have seen for a number of days. The buildings are all equipped with all modern conveniences which tends to make farm life more pleasant. Mrs. Raymond Iten who is a bride of only a few months, says there is nothing like the farm, and we certainly agree. She has 110 purebred Plymouth Rock chicks, which are her first attempt at poultry raising. Bert was pulling stumps with the old steam engine which is one sure way in getting them out; the boys have a threshing outfit and clover-bulker that give them plenty of work to do in the fall as well as bring in a little more income.

In going to H. W. Britton's place, one is reminded of the song, "Down the lane we strolled together." If I were a song-writer, there would be a new song written, as one sure has to do some winding before he reaches the farmstead. A new set of buildings are to be built this summer, on a very pretty location. Richard Whitman and sister June have made their home with Mr. Britton, who is their cousin, for the last eight years. The Daggett Brook town board met at the Britton home this afternoon.

Preston Caughey was cultivating corn and it was over knee-high at that. Hay-making is also in full swing at the place. He has 190 acres which he has farmed for the last six years, and is milking 12 cows of Holstein breed, that always have silage in their ration. Mr. Caughey has one acre of alfalfa which is doing fine.

During our visits I have noticed one thing of great importance that in many cases is being neglected in the production of poultry, both in large and small flocks, and that is a constant supply of fresh water for both young and old chicks. I believe it worth while mentioning some of the important facts that water plays in poultry production. First, it serves to soften the feed in the crop, preparing it for grinding in the gizzard. It is a constituent part of the body of the fowl and of the egg, comprising over 55 per cent of the former and over 65 per cent of the latter. It serves as a carrier of food, helps to keep the body cool, aids in digestion, and acts as a lubricant of the joints and muscles. The lack of water retards most of the processes of the body. It hinders digestion and limits excretion. Growing chicks are easily stunted in their development by the lack of or an irregular supply of water. So one can readily see that water plays a very important part and should be given more attention than is given by the average farmer. It is just as important to have fresh water in front of poultry as it is cows, pigs or human beings. We do not expect a dairy cow to produce milk without water so why should we expect a hen to produce eggs without water. A hen will hustle for its own food but water is usually not so easily attained. There are many different watering devices on the market, but whether one uses those or any open vessel is immaterial, just so there is a constant supply always before the flock.

FASHIONS

By HEDDA HOYT

New York, June 30.—(UP)—The Summer evening wrap is an indispensable item in the wardrobe of the fashionable women. Often we feel that we can get through the Summer without an evening wrap by using the light street wrap or the white sports coat over the evening gown. By doing so we never feel properly dressed for evening occasions.

This year each evening frock has its own special wrap. Most of us can't afford to indulge in more than one wrap but we can manage to have several if we chose chiffon as a wrap material. Recently I have seen several very stunning though simple wraps of chiffon which could be made in colors to harmonize with pastel evening frocks, giving the ensemble idea.

One could easily copy these wraps at home since they are merely scarfs in most instances and these little matching scarfs cost more than their weight in platinum in the smart shops. One model which I have in mind is worn over a coral pink beaded chiffon gown. The wrap is nothing more or less than a long, wide scarf made of a double layer of black chiffon which has a deep ruffle border of coral pink chiffon the exact shade of the gown.

The black portion of the scarf extends to the knees and the pink ruffle extends below the hem of the gown. The ruffle is joined to the black chiffon scarf with huge pink chiffon roses. One can purchase these chiffon flowers in the shops and they are not expensive. A green frock could have a similar scarf in a black and green combination.

Another very beautiful wrap of chiffon which could be fashioned at home, is merely a double chiffon cape of slender lines adorned with peacock ruffles to two alternating colors. The model shown in the shop has a white foundation with white and black ruffles alternating from neckline to hem. The collar is upstanding and is covered with hand-made roses made of chiffon in black and white.

A very simple wrap is made of colored chiffon or crepe de chere which is pleated and shirred in at the neck line and joined to a collar of matching fur. Fur comes in all pastel shades this year and the soft fluffy fur is best liked for evening purposes in the various dyed shades.

FRIENDSHIP LETTER CONTEST

IN commenting recently on the decadence of the old art of letter writing, THE BRAINERD DISPATCH stirred Miss Islay McColl and she immediately took up her trusty portable typewriter, wrote a regular letter, and then urged the institution of a Friendship Letter Contest.

The idea is this. Get a map of our lake country from the Chamber of Commerce. Mail it and a nice letter telling about this region to some distant friend of yours. You will give the map publicity, get your friend interested in spending his vacation in our lakes region and incidentally you will be benefiting your friend and helping to spread the fame of your home town and this section of the country.

In her letter to THE DISPATCH, Miss McColl says:

As you say, the art of letter writing is fast becoming a lost one. Most of us seem to be too busy to put our thoughts (if any) on paper, so scrawl a hasty word or two, leaving out most of the pronouns, sign it with blurred initials which it sometimes takes the whole family and some of the neighbors to decipher, and send it in lieu of the once leisurely letter.

"Got here Sunday. Saw T. L." (whoever that is) "in Mpls. Sent love to—" (M. N. or W. no one knows which) "Forward mail to—" (a lot of wiggles with Y or G on the end) "Write soon—" (but where?) "Love to all. Bill." That's a modern letter; standard form for family use.

And so I thought you might be interested in this letter, which I sent with one of the new Crow Wing county-Chamber of Commerce maps.

A little Friendship Letter Contest might stimulate interest in letter-writing, and be the means of spreading the news about Crow Wing county's Piney Playground, also. Give until, say, July 15th, for people to write their letters, sending copies to your paper, with name and address of person letter is sent to, and name of sender. You could start printing the letters right away, and leave the awarding of prizes to a committee. This is just a suggestion, you know. I have been thinking of making it for some time, and your editorial sent me to the machine tonight.

Here is Miss McColl's letter which accompanied the county lakes map she sent:

Brainerd, Minnesota, June 20th, 1926.

Dear F—

Congratulations, my friend; and now that the day is set, do let me have a finger in the honeymoon pie! I feel rising within me my woman's managing instinct, and with it plans for the ideal vacation for the ideal couple, You and She!

Minnesota has more lakes than a red-headed boy has freckles, and Crow Wing county has over 700 of them corralled, named and marked on the enclosed map. Here is a summer bill of fare that will tempt you, I'm sure: Pine-fringed highways, satisfyingly surfaced; sparkling lakes with firm, clean, sandy beaches; chains of charming lakes extending for miles, and teeming with gamey pike, and bass and muskies; swift moving streams where trout flash their bright lengths—these, and the charm of sun, trees and cool water, and the fragrance of the pungent pines. Doesn't that whet your vacation appetite?

Well, it's all yours. Just strap a camping outfit onto that good car and make the trip in leisurely fashion. I'll mark the route for you, red-lining the towns with the tourist camps. You know, there's no better way for a couple to get truly acquainted than by camping together, and between you and me, a man never appears to better advantage than in his rough and ready clothes, provided his manner is not rough, and he's ready when he's expected to be.

You'll strike Crow Wing county at Mille Lacs lake, and if you first glimpse this great lake with a moon big as a barrel riding the waters, your honeymoon will be flooded with a radiance never to be forgotten. The Indians call this body of water "The Lake That Spreads All Over," and the highway clings to its shores for over twenty-five miles. A hard-surfaced road leads into Brainerd, "Gateway to the Ten Thousand Lakes District." Of course we'll meet you there, but to save your feelings, we'll leave home the rice and old shoes.

Now, since you have six weeks' vacation, divide the time into three sections. Spend the first two weeks at one of the more secluded resorts, where you can just loaf and enjoy each other. There you will have long hours of fishing, boating and bathing, with jaunts through the pine-needled forests, where rare wild flowers reward your seeking.

At these places real home cooking is featured: perhaps fried chicken, new potatoes in cream; golden biscuits hot from the oven, with clover honey; home-made pickles and jams, and oh, yummy, wild strawberry short-cake, or a quarter section of luscious berry pie! Isn't that a meal to set before a king, and of course, his queen, too?

Just think, two weeks of your honeymoon gone already! And now, how about a cunning little log cabin, with rustic fire-place, and stove for cooking, also dining room, living room and sleeping porch necessities, and extra cots for the use of guests. (Not that I'm inviting myself for a week-end.) There are fifty or more of these cottages at one of the popular resorts, also a store well stocked with supplies. Here the little bride may "play" at house-keeping, while at any time meals may be had at the dining hall, or the cafe. And should the first cake fall, or the biscuits burn, none but the fishes need know.

To America's most unique summer resort, located on Big Pelican lake (see enclosed map), has been added a $250,000 addition, constructed entirely of logs, and without a single nail being used. The logs are all fitted by hand and everything is rustic in appearance, but comfort and luxury are the big words here. The dining room will seat 1000 persons, and above are sixteen airy sleeping rooms, each with tiled bath. They overlook the water, and the breeze is delightful. In truth, a Breezy Point! Better let me make reservations for you without delay.

Enjoyable pastimes here may be indulged in daily: riding the water slides, diving from floating docks, riding surf boards, canoeing or sailing, tennis on cement courts, trap shooting, etc. And should you care to ride horseback, trained saddle horses are provided.

But after all, the main thing about the lakes, naturally, is the water, and a dip in the lake is "The End of a Perfect Day." After dancing to the peppy music of a first class orchestra, in a screened-in pavilion with floors of enticing smoothness, what could be more enjoyable than a quick dip into moonlit waters? Then one is ready to roll up in a soft blanket and begin to count the stars.

But the mind soon becomes hazy, and lost in the Milky Way one floats into Dreamland, which is strangely familiar, and very much resembles Crow Wing county's Piney Playground.

So come, the mighty woods are calling. Bring the little bride and come where the pine trees wave,

"When sunshine makes 'em all sweet-scented,
And hear among their furry boughs
The baskin' west-wind purr contented."

Expecting to see you both ere long,

Yours most sincerely,
ISLAY.

WELCOME HOT WEATHER

WE welcome the hot weather. Thank goodness, summer got under way Monday as the government thermometer recorded 92 degrees in its blistering hot little weather coop.

Hot weather will drive the tourists to the lakes. If it's hot in Minnesota, it's red hot, unearthy hot in Missouri, Illinois, Kansas, and all through the Middle West and Southwest and the East from which areas we draw our tourist trade.

July and August, according to local prognostications, will be the flourishing months in tourist travel. Reservations for these months are piling up and the influx of tourists has noticeably increased this week.

Development companies, quick to react, are gaining more inquiries as to lake lots and lake homes. Building trades and lumber yards are feeling the movement and more cottages will be the result.

"See America First" has been succeeded by "See the 10,000 Lakes of Minnesota" and travel to Europe is not what it used to be. Europe is passe compared with our luxuriant lakes.

Recreation at our lakes is for the whole family and it's inexpensive too when compared with what fashionable eastern resorts require. Here the whole family comes close to nature. Pa finds fishing handy. Ma and the children dote on the swimming and other amusements. And dances are so plentiful and the music so good that one can hop every night if you choose.

Transportation facilities are of the best. Rail and bus vie in offering the best service. Hotels and resorts aim to please you. If you want to be real conscientious about it and visit every one of our 700 lakes within easy driving distance of Brainerd, you have the pleasant task of spending several years in the Brainerd lake region before you have made the acquaintance of all these beautiful, azure tinted, fresh water lakes.

"OPPORTUNITY NEVER KNOCKS AT ANY MAN'S DOOR BUT ONCE"

Opportunities never stop to knock at the door of the man who is asleep. They go on until they find a man who is on his way to work.

The opportunity that knocks and runs away will return to knock some other day. At any rate we can hurry out and follow it up.

The biggest opportunities are those that are made. Not twenty men in all America knew how to use iron wire when John A. Roebling began its manufacture in his little shop in New Jersey. His first wire cable was considered a joke until he towed a canal boat along the Pennsylvania canals to demonstrate its usefulness. He built the Niagara suspension bridge to prove another use for "wire rope" and spent his life developing other uses for it. Today steel cables are used everywhere for a thousand purposes and the Roeblings have made a fortune through the opportunity they made.

Big opportunities are usually very patient. Electricity waited for centuries for Franklin to fly his kite. Steam had been jostling and rattling tea kettle lids for hundreds of years trying to attract somebody's attention before James Watts noticed it. Apples had been falling since time began in the hope of getting the attention of some Isaac Newton.

The tides of the sea with their resistless movements are willing to furnish power for all the world as soon as some man is ready to harness them. Every atom in the earth's structure is bursting with energy anxious to be released to do the day's work.

Someone will some day find a way to move goods directly from the producer to the consumer. Someone else will find a way to release atomic energy. Someone else will some day find a way to store up sunshine and light houses without the use of artificial light. In the meantime opportunity stands knocking.

Opportunities are always waiting for the man who can serve a need, improve a service, satisfy a want, enlarge a market or save labor.

What is news, anyway

That depends a good deal on you. If you're one type of person, news is divorces, and murders, and heir-to-millions-hangs-self. If you're another type, news is closing quotations on the stock exchange. If you're somebody else, news is final scores at the ball-field or race-track.

But no matter what type of person you are, news is also information about the things you need and use in your every-day life. If there's a new style coat or shoes or gloves—that's news. If there's a new type of vacuum cleaner or radio battery or vitamin—that's news. If there are improvements in automobiles, new records for the player piano, a better toothpaste—that's news.

You get all this news in the shape of advertisements. It's pretty important, advertising is. It keeps you informed about all kinds of things you need to know. It helps you. It saves you time and mistakes.

REED DECLINES TO QUESTION WM. H. SLAYTON

LATTER IS HEAD OF ASSOCIATION
AGAINST PROHIBITION AMENDMENT

SENATOR KING, DEMOCRAT, OF UTAH, DOES THE INTER-ROGATING

Washington, June 30.—(UP)—Chairman Reed, democrat, Missouri, of the senate primary investigating committee, declined today to interrogate William H. Slayton, head of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, when the latter was called before his committee.

"It has been slanderously asserted," Reed said, "that I am a wet. There are certain dry men on this committee and I am going to turn Captain Slayton over to them. Then there won't be any charges that I am trying to cover anything up."

Sen. King, democrat, Utah, took up the questioning of Slayton, who told of the formation of the association.

The association is now raising and spending about half a million dollars a year to agitate repeal of the Volstead act, Slayton told the committee.

Contributions are accumulating at a rate of $40,000 a month, Slayton said, and increasing all the time. Last year the average was about $25,000 a month.

Up to March last year, the organization spent in all about $800,000. Slayton, with a manifest air of pride, said he had started off with nothing in 1919.

In reference to the Pennsylvania primary, Slayton said he held several conferences with Charles S. Wood, head of the Pennsylvania wet organization. Wood also enlisted support of John T. Flood, said Slayton, when Flood refused to help with his political organization.

"We decided to support William S. Vare, the wet candidate," said Slayton.

Wood asked Slayton for $3,500 to be expended during the primary for mass meetings and posters.

"I sent him the $3,500 and that is the total amount expended by our organization in the primary," said Slayton. "I understood Mr. Wood held the mass meetings."

"You are preparing for the coming election there," asked Senator King, democrat, Utah.

"Well, yes, but we do not intend to spend much money there," the witness replied, "because we would rather put our money into pastures that are not so good."

"What literature did you send out during the primary campaign?"

"We sent letters and statements to the effect that while Vare was connected with the Philadelphia organization of which he would have to bear the odium, he had the moral courage to state his position on this issue, while Senator Pepper did not." "Your support of Vare then was a choice between two evils?" Senator Goff, republican, West Virginia, asked.

"Yes, it was."

The committee adjourned at this point until 2 P. M. when Slayton will resume the stand.

STATE CONCLUDES MAJOR EVIDENCE IN DURKIN TRIAL

Chicago, June 30.—(UP)—The state at noon today had completed the introduction of the major evidence, which it hopes will result in the hanging of Martin Durkin, slayer of Edward Shanahan, a federal agent.

The testimony of important witnesses was completed today with Charles Ward, uncle by marriage to Betty Werner, the girl that Durkin deserted for a village blacksmith's daughter. A few minor state witnesses are yet to be heard.

Ward testified that Harlow George, his brother-in-law, came to his home last October 6, three days after Durkin and Betty returned from California, and warned him that if the Packard automobile in which the pair returned had been stolen, he would make it "hot for Durkin."

John Rooney, partner of Shanahan, testified that George had informed him of Durkin's possession of the car with California license plates.

Sen. La Follette Suggests Reopening Baking Corporation Case

Washington, June 30.—(UP)—Suggestion that Federal Judge Soper, Baltimore, reopen the Continental Baking Corporation antitrust case as a result of disclosures of the federal trade commission was made in the senate today by Senator La Follette, republican, Wisconsin.

The dissenting opinion of Commissioner Nugent and Thompson, he said "show that gross fraud was perpetrated upon the court by the assertion that antitrust charges against the corporation were pending before the federal trade commission, when as a matter of fact the federal trade commission's complaint against the corporation had actually been dismissed the previous day.

HIGH SPOT IN TRIAL OF H. H. SIEVERS

TESTIMONY INTRODUCED IN AT-TEMPT TO SHOW A DIS-CREPANCY

OF $1,325 IN ACCOUNTS OF FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BUFFALO

Buffalo, Minn., June 30.—(UP)—The high spot in the trial of H. H. Sievers, Buffalo banker, was testimony introduced today in an attempt to show a discrepancy in the accounts of the First National Bank of Buffalo, of which Sievers was president.

Sievers is on trial charged with aiding and abetting Carl Melberg, former president of the Maple Lake bank, who is in a Minneapolis hospital, in the alleged grand larceny of $23,000 from the Maple Lake State Bank.

Melberg and Henry Unschuld, of Minneapolis, a promoter, were mentioned today through records of the First National Bank with reference to Unschuld's account.

Unschuld was credited with depositing $30,325 in deposit slips signed by Melberg and in the general ledger.

The state contended that in the remittance sheet of the bank, Unschuld's deposits were shown to be only $30,000, $1,325 less than in the other records.

Miss Mary Butler, assistant cashier of the Maple Lake State Bank, was on the stand most of the morning, resuming her testimony where she left off late Tuesday. Her testimony consisted principally of identification of records and signatures.

Judge Arthur E. Giddings overruled repeated strenuous objections by Sievers' counsel to the evidence the state introduced. County Attorney Tom Welsh said the evidence was an important link in the attempt to prove a bank wrecking conspiracy involving four institutions. The amount involved may be as high as $1,000,000, Welsh has admitted.

Among the 500 persons who jammed the courtroom today, one-third of them women, was Mrs. Sievers, who was accompanied by her nine-year-old son, Hugh, Jr.

600 ENGINEERS AND DRAUGHTSMEN IN 'POLITE STRIKE'

Before leaving their posts the strikers made arrangements for the department heads to stay on the job and handle emergency matters.

Now—for America a revolutionary European-type high-speed Light Car

This New Car Offers:

- 30 miles on a gallon of gasoline
- 55 miles an hour—5 to 30 miles in 13 seconds
- 4-wheel brakes—stops in 51 feet from 40 miles an hour
- Turns in 34-foot circle—easiest car in America to park
- 5 feet 8 inches high—lower gravity center—greater safety
- European-type body—more inside room than any other light car

A three-minute study of these remarkable facts may save you from buying an obsolete automobile

THIS is the announcement of a revolutionary new-type car, different from anything you have ever known before.

A car that combines the advanced engineering practice of Europe with new and improved standards of American performance.

This new car has a low, European-type body. With height and length in true symmetrical proportion.

It is 5 feet 8 inches high . . . not as tall as the average man. Yet it provides more room and comfort than you've ever found in any automobile of this class before.

It has a high-torque, 31 horsepower motor of small bore and long stroke—the same engineering principle used in the fastest racing cars of America and Europe.

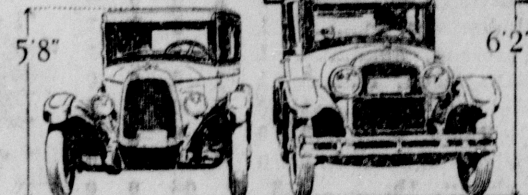

It turns in a 34-foot circle . . . that's less than the width of an average city street. You can park in 14 feet . . . which is much less than the space required for the ordinary car.

4-wheel brakes are an integral part of this new car's chassis design . . . a necessity which light car owners have not heretofore enjoyed. Measured tests show that it will stop in 51 feet from a speed of 40 miles an hour.

Its center of gravity is extremely low, with ample road clearance . . . thus giving a sense of security you have never found in any light car. Something you actually feel when you drive this car.

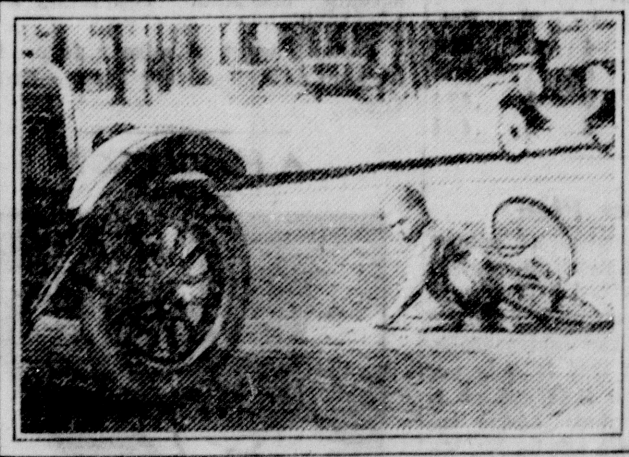

Two engineering ideals combined

The Overland Whippet represents a combination of the most advanced European and American engineering thought.

Compared with old-fashioned, bulky cars the Whippet appears smaller and much more graceful

It is a complete new car . . . designed and built as a unit . . . not an old-fashioned reconstructed chassis. For over three years, Willys-Overland engineers in Europe and America have been developing it. Over 360,000 miles of road tests proved the practical advantages of this car before it was released for production.

11-inch 4-wheel brakes enable this car to stop in 51 feet from a speed of 40 miles per hour appears smarter and much more graceful. That's because height and length are in true artistic proportion.

In the Overland Whippet you have the feeling of riding closer to the ground . . . with the resultant sense of solidity and absence of that sideway so noticeable in the conventional type of car. That high-up-in-the-air feeling is gone . . . here is a new kind of riding comfort. Step into this car and you will be surprised to find so much spacious room.

You can compare the Overland Whippet with all other American light cars on the basis of price alone. But from the standpoint of engineering, performance, comfort and quality, it has established an entirely new criterion by which all other light cars must be judged.

The Overland Whippet is furnished in three body styles . . . Sedan, Touring and Coupe.

See this new-type car

You have never seen a car like this before. With the introduction of the Overland Whippet, it is not sound judgment today to consider the purchase of a less modern car.

A new trend of automobile design is dawning in America. Other light cars of this design will follow this one.

But today Overland . . . and Overland alone . . . offers you these unique engineering attainments.

In fairness to yourself, see this wonderful new-type car.

LATZO KAYOES HARMON IN 5TH ROUND

LEFT TO THE JAW PUTS HIM SOUND ASLEEP

NEW YORK CHALLENGER WAS IN DREAMLAND FOR 3 MINUTES

HARMON COMES OUT OF TRANCE SHOUTING FOR ACTION

By PAUL W. WHITE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Newark, N. J., June 30. — Peter Latzo, who trained for the welter-weight championship by digging coal in a Scranton mine, was hailed today as a titleholder, who has one of the hardest punches of any of the little men.

Willie wobbled an instant and then crashed to the canvas oblivious of the shouting which hailed the new ring hero.

Carried to his corner by the champion, referee and his handlers, Harmon was administered restoratives and came out of his trance fighting and shouting for action.

It was the first time in his long career that Harmon had ever taken the full count.

GLITTERING FIELD TO FACE STARTER

BARRIER FOR AMERICAN DERBY TO BE SPRUNG AT WASHINGTON PARK JULY 10

Chicago, June 30.—(UP)—A glittering field will face the starter when the barrier is sprung for the American Derby at Washington park on July 10.

Already there are four derby winners of this season, Bubbling Over, Carlisle, Bagenbaggage and Haste, entered in the classic, not to mention a number of other speedy colts. Bubbling Over and Bagenbaggage ran as teammates in the Kentucky Derby, where they finished one-two, scoring a notable victory for Colonel E. R. Bradley.

While Bubbling Over was being rested, Bagenbaggage won the Lattin Derby and again the Bradley silks were one-two when Boot and Boot ran second, making it the second time this season the Bradley horses had ran first and second in a great derby.

Haste, with the peerless Sande up, stopped the Bradley winning streak, nosing out Bagenbaggage in a hurricane finish in the Fairmount Derby. Boot to Boot ran third.

Turf experts point to Carlisle as an unknown quantity. To date he has not met any of the other three and track fans are eager to see the son of the great Pharlaris run at Washington park. Carlisle won the Tajuan Derby by 13 lengths against a first class field and won the rich Coffroth Handicap with such ease as to astonish the turf world.

Carlisle was unable to run in the Kentucky Derby due to an injured leg, when the spirited colt kicked himself in his stable.

In addition to these fast horses will be Crusader, Display, Black Maria and several other starters which have won notable races this year.

B. A. C. PUTS N. E. OUT OF THE RUNNING FOR LEAGUE HONORS

STALLMAN LETS NORTHEASTERS DOWN WITH FOUR HITS, WINS 5 TO 2

Y. M. C. A. NOW IN UNDISPUTED POSSESSION OF FIRST HALF CHAMPIONSHIP

Game Thursday, 5:30 P. M.
Y. M. C. A. vs. B. A. C.
Game Friday, 5:30 P. M.
N. E. vs. Seals

The B. A. C. team last night let down the Northeast team by a score of 5 to 2, thereby eliminating them from a chance at first honors in the first half of the city league race. The Y. M. C. A. now holds undisputed right to first place, except for the protest of the Seals regarding their defeat at the hands of the B. A. C. team Monday night. If the Y. M. C. A. should lose its game with the B. A. C. team tomorrow, and the Seals win their protest, win the play-off of the B. A. C. game and win from N. E. Friday night, then they will gain a tie with the Y. M. C. A. for first place. It is understood that if the Y. M. C. A. wins tomorrow, the protest will be withdrawn.

Stallman pitched well for the B. A. C. last night, letting the N. E. men down with four hits, none being for extra bases. He fanned eight, walked three, and hit one batter. Van Walk, for the losers, allowed six hits, whiffed seven and walked three.

The N. E. men tried valiantly to score in the fourth. Kaufman was safe on Peterson's error. Then singled, and Jarbo got a free ticket by being hit by a pitched ball. Then Skiba hit to Stallman, who nipped Kaufman at the plate, and Howard followed suit by hitting to Stallman also, this time Thon being the victim at the plate. Stallman then fanned Schwindeman to end the inning.

The N. E. men scored twice in the first half of the sixth, to tie the score, but the B. A. C. men came back with a trio of runs in their half. Uddenberg walked, and scored on Peterson's double. Zakariasen sent a long double scoring Peterson, and Zak came home soon after on an infield out and a pitcher's error.

Old Copper Pipe

At Giza, Egypt, a piece of copper pipe has been found near an ancient tomb which it is believed was used for plumbing purposes at least 5,000 years ago. Popular Mechanics Magazine points out that this is only another bit of evidence that copper is practically indestructible. Under the lava and debris thrown out by Mt. Vesuvius in 76 A. D., was found a bronze bathtub which is still in such good condition that it will hold water.

Rattlesnakes and Young

Rattlesnakes, of which there are some 13 species in the United States, are viviparous; that is, they do not lay eggs but bring forth living young. The United States biological survey says that in the early fall the female rattlesnake brings forth from six to nine young of about five inches in length. The young display all the traits of the adults and will try to rattle and bite as soon as they are born.—Exchange.

40,000 FIGHT FANS CROWD TO SEE BATTLE

ROCKY KANSAS TO MEET SAMMY MANDELL AT CHICAGO

WHITE SOX BALL PARK PREPARED TO STAGE THE BIG FIGHT

By BERT M. DENBY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, June 30.—Forty thousand fight-hungry fans are expected to jam their way into the White Sox park next Saturday to see Rocky Kansas, world's lightweight boxing champion, defend his title against the onslaughts of Sammy Mandell, pride of Rockford, Ill.

That a record breaking crowd will be present is certain. Already requests for reservations are literally pouring in from towns all over the country and in some instances are taking tickets in blocks.

Workmen are preparing the park for the largest crowd that ever has been in it. The ring will be placed near second base so that the seats may be placed all over the field.

While the activity is going on at the park, the fighters themselves are putting on the finishing touches to six weeks of training.

Kansas is in wonderful condition. Folks hereabouts had figured that Rocky was sort of a decrepit old man until he came here.

It took Rocky just about 10 minutes to dispel these ideas. He stepped out with a couple rounds of real speed and the rail birds immediately dropped the odds that had rated Mandell so highly. He also looked to be within the 135 pounds limit.

Mandell is in the best condition of his life and his work at present consists of little other than keeping on edge.

Elephants Have Colds

Circus elephants often suffer from colds and the method of treating them is more or less difficult. However, one remedy that seems helpful at least is to make the elephant inhale boiling vinegar, which is done by half filling a bag with vinegar and hanging it over the elephant's trunk so that it has to inhale the fumes whether it wants to or not. The fumes are held to be quite beneficial.

Support for Grapevines

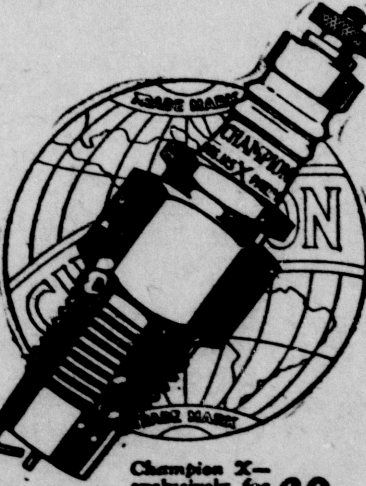

The bureau of plant industry says that copper wire may be used to support grapevines. While the copper wire is more expensive at first, some believe that it is cheaper in the long run, as it endures longer than galvanized iron, which is used more universally. The galvanized iron wire needs to be removed in about three years. No. 10 wire is the size which is used for vineyard trellis.

ROTARY HEARS ITS PRESIDENT

William V. Turcotte Sketches Work of the International Convention at Denver

CITY MOST HOSPITABLE

Some Changes Made in Rotary Constitution—Boyd Dramatic Company Gives Selections

Brainerd Rotary club heard President William V. Turcotte sketch in broad colors and strokes the high lights of the International Rotary convention at Denver, which he attended as delegate from Brainerd Rotary. The city, in fact the whole of Colorado, was most hospitable and did everything possible to make pleasant the stay of the many delegates.

Some changes have been made in the constitution as to convention and other dates, as sought by the Chicago club. The pageant ushering in the convention was a most attractive and colorful one. The addresses were of a high order and productive of much thought.

Past District President Eddie Flynn made one of the big speeches of the convention and was in evidence. He was named on the board of international directors.

Denver, according to Mr. Turcotte, is great on advertising its mountains and trout streams and if Minnesota spent only a tenth as much as does Colorado in exploiting its natural advantages, we would have thousands more of tourists in our lake region. After hours of fishing Mr. Turcotte caught one trout. The lakes are icy cold and preclude any bathing.

The Boyd dramatic company, one of the attractions at the Chautauqua, rendered several pleasing musical selections. This company "doubles" being good in dramatics and in musical lines too. Their singing with piano and violin accompaniment was of a high order and gained much applause.

A. G. Trommald called attention to the announcement that the Crown Prince of Sweden would be on the radio Tuesday afternoon.

Last week George E. Lowe was the chairman in charge of the meeting. George, although a railroad man, assembled his speakers outside the rail circles. Supt. W. C. Cobb gave a graphic history of the Y. M. C. A. and urged for more generous support of the institution. Scout Executive Norman gave the Scout camp at Clearwater lake. Secretary Dillan of the Y. M. C. A. told of the Older Boys conference to be held in Brainerd late in the fall months.

The "Nut" quartet, assisted by Miss Georgia Drexler soprano and Miss Effie Drexler, pianist, gave some beautiful selections. The quartet is composed of A. C. Mraz, Dr. A. K. Cohen, D. H. Fullerton and J. Alfred Dillan. Some of the songs given had been arranged specially for quartet and soprano by Miss Effie Drexler. The quartet and soprano songster were loudly applauded.

The meeting preceding the Lowe program, the day was in charge of D. E. Whitney. He had planned on having Attorney General Hilton as a speaker, but he was unable to appear. Probate Judge L. B. Kinder substituted and gave a wonderfully clear presentation of the duties of a probate judge and gave a line on the different classes of cases brought before him, as well as offering sage advice regarding the making and execution of wills, the duties of executors, and kindred topics.

The singer of the day was Dr. Anderson, who has a most pleasing baritone. His accompaniments were played by Miss Skaug.

Picnicking With Peter

By JANE OSBORN

(Copyright.)

IRENE tore open her brother's letter as she made her way out of the crowded little post office and, because her eyes were preoccupied with the pages in her hand, she collided with a young man coming into the post office in haste. But he was a rather nice person to collide with.

He mumbled an apology, made a quick gesture with his hand toward his head and, remembering that he wore no hat, buried the hand deep in his pocket and continued his way into the post office.

Irene smiled, and again began to read her note.

"My old friend Peter Yard expects to be down at Sandy Beach for a few days," the letter informed Irene. He's gone down to visit a rich aunt who has a place somewhere down there, but I gather there's no life around the aunt's place. He dreaded the visit. I gave him your address and told him to look you up. He's a fine fellow and I'll appreciate anything you do for him. By the way, Peter's wild about picnics."

By this time Irene had reached the general provision store where she had to see about laying in the day's supplies for her family, and crumpling her brother's letter in her sport pocket she thought no more about it.

Irene was bending over a barrel of green corn, trying to select a dozen ears that were worth cooking. Suddenly she looked up and narrowly avoided a second collision with the young man in tweed. Again he muttered an apology, and then going toward the proprietor of the store asked him whether he could direct him to the Bronson cottage.

"I'm Irene Bronson," said the girl, coming forward.

It turned out of course that this was Peter Yard, and he was losing no time in finding the cottage belonging to his friend Ned Bronson.

"I'm so glad you found me," said Irene. "Because, you see, we're getting up a picnic for this evening and we need another man. We go down the beach to the dunes and eat our supper there. Could you come with us?"

Peter said he would be delighted, and then finding no excuse to take up more of pretty Irene Bronson's time, he sauntered back to his aunt's imposing summer home some way inland. Then Irene hurried home. She sought out and found her aunt, who was for the time being staying with Irene there at the cottage. Irene told her aunt of her plans for a picnic.

"Honestly, Irene," said the aunt, "it seems as if I couldn't stand another picnic."

Irene did not urge her aunt to go, but she did not change her plans. Next she telephoned to a friend named Alice. She told her of the proposed picnic.

"Irene, you're crazy," answered Alice. However, Irene was persistent and Alice gave in.

It was a week after Peter's arrival at Sandy Beach. Peter and Irene sat facing the ocean while the sun was sinking behind the dunes at their back.

"Irene, Irene," Peter was saying in a boyish, impulsive manner that quite captivated Irene. "This has been the most wonderful adventure in the world. I first saw you, ran into you in fact, scarcely a week ago, and after seven glorious days I have dared to tell you I love you—and, Irene, I can't believe you love me, too. And I don't want you to say you do unless you really mean it."

Irene protested that she really and truly meant what she said and that from the time she ran into Peter at the post office she had loved him. "And as soon as I knew that you were the Peter my brother mentioned in his letter, I made up my mind then and there to have a picnic—and I've had picnics every evening since. No one else will come to them now, Peter. They're all so sick of picnics, but I love you so much I have forgotten how I felt about them."

"It just proves that I really love you," went on Peter, "feeling the way I do about picnics."

"But Peter—Ned said you were crazy about picnics. It was in that letter I was reading when I bumped into you."

"Me—crazy about picnics?" asked Peter. "Let's see the letter." Irene had put her hands deep into the pockets of her sports coat to find the letter that she had never even finished.

"Peter's wild about picnics—he said he didn't want to go away for his vacation for fear he'd have to go on picnics. He's just come home from an expedition across the desert. He was gone for a year and didn't eat at a table all that time. So don't try any of your sandy suppers with Peter. He'll troth at the mouth and hate you if you do."

Irene finished reading the letter. "Peter, dear," she said, and her eyes were almost teary, "can you forgive me?"

"I can," said Peter, helping Irene to her feet. "If you'll let me throw what remains of this picnic supper as far as I can out to sea, and if after that you'll take me home and give me a real meal in a real dining room—with-out any sand in it."

POUND STERLING ADVANCES

London, June 30.—(UP)—The pound sterling went to its highest quotation since 1924 today when it touched

Would Rather Fight Than Work

"I suffered for years with stomach trouble and could not eat and just hated for anyone to say work to me. I would rather fight. Since taking a course of MAYR'S I actually want to work, and talk about eat, I am the last one to leave the table now." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson's Pharmacy and druggists everywhere. —Adv.

$4.86 13-16. The pound closed today at $4.86½.

U. S. STEEL A BRILLIANT OFFERING

New York, June 30.—(UP)—United States Steel was a brilliant performer in today's advances on the stock exchange. Notwithstanding the unprecedented bond offerings during June whose total of around $500,000,000 exceeded the aggregate of any previous month on record investment funds were still available in large quantities and their diversion into standard railroad and industrial shares brought about further substantial gains in the issues affected. Buying of New York Central, Union Pacific, C. & O., and the seasoned rails was encouraged by the estimate of a total May railway net of $88,700,000 representing the month's proportion of an annual return of 5.64 per cent on tentative rate making valuation against five per cent in May 1925, and 5.29 per cent in April of this year.

"The Sun Do Move"

The sun, like all other known stars, moves through space. Astronomers estimate that it travels at the rate of about 13 miles a second. Whether the sun has a definite orbit is not known. Of course the rest of the solar system, which consists of the earth and other planets, is carried through space with the sun.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Behind the Scenes

Mrs. Blm—Harry took part in an amateur play last night and today he's so hoarse he can hardly talk.

Mrs. Bam—Oh, he was the leading man, then?

"No, he was the prompter."

Inexperienced

Lady of the House—As cook I shall expect you to rise at five o'clock and I will allow you one evening off every week.

Applicant—You ain't been married long, have you, dear?

CAN SQUEEZE THROUGH

Mother—Do you think George can hold Anna's love until he can afford to marry?

Dad—Oh, I think he can squeeze through.

Wit and Humor

AS IT IMPRESSED HER

"Some people," remarked Boreleigh, "still hold that the world is flat."

"Well," she said, "they're a right to their opinion, you know."

"But you haven't any doubt about its being round, have you?"

"No," she answered, stifling a yawn, "but it seems awfully flat when you're around."—Boston Transcript.

No Credit to Him

"You n-never seem to take any interest in anything I do," sobbed the bride.

"Don't be unreasonable, my dear," remonstrated her husband. "I remained awake all last night thinking of the cake you baked yesterday."—Stray Stories.
